

Family and Life Protection Plans

Who Needs It ... Individuals and couples who have small assets that would not have to go through probate and do not need to plan for the care of their children, but do want to have their health care decisions in place and allow their chosen agent to access their assets if they are incapacitated.	Who Needs It ... Families who want the assurance of the Basic Plan along with the planning necessary to grant powers and care instructions to insure that their minor children are cared for and not removed to the foster system without plans for their temporary or permanent care.	Who Needs It ... Individuals and families who want to insure that their assets and personal wealth are not eaten up in probate costs of time, money, and legal fees.  Clients may choose to add guardianship terms and planning tools to their Trust Plan including minor's assets.	Who Needs It ... Individuals and families who need the total planning and peace of mind full asset planning and appropriate asset transfers are done to eliminate probate and care for their family and wealth.  Appropriate for families with little time to perform these tasks.
Your Basic Plan... Includes a Testamentary Will, a Health Care Directive, &amp; a Durable Power of Attorney so you know that your wishes will be followed and your agent may access your accounts.  May include post-death planning for memorial wishes.	Your Family Plan ... Provides for short term guardianship powers to family members and puts guardianship plans in place for permanent guardianship  Includes the Basic Plan documents and Short Term Guardianship Powers of Attorney and Guardianship Designations.	Your Trust Plan ... Gives you the protection necessary to avoid tying up your estate in the courts.  Includes all of the Basic and Family Plan as well as Revocable Trust and one property trust transfer deed. You handle all other asset transfers with limited assistance from us.	Your Complete Plan... Provides for all elements of the lower plans, plus includes planning sessions with our attorneys to insure your assets are titled as you wish to accomplish your estate goals.  We inventory your estate with you and handle all transfers and planning with you.

Custom Packages to Fit Your Needs

Custom plans are available, including additional documents, special purpose trusts, and other estate related activities.